A CHRONICLE OF EVENTS
WITH SIDE LIGHTS ON THE MEN
AND WOMEN WHO MAKE UP
WASHINGTON'S COMPLEX AND INTERESTING SOCIAL LIFE

MRS. HARDING accompanied the President when he left this morning for Fredericksburg, Va., to witness the autumn maneuvers of the U. S. marine corps on the historic battlefield of the Wilderness. They are making the trip by motor and will spend the night under canvas, returning to Washington late tomorrow. Others in the Presidential party are Edwin Denby, Secretary of the Navy; the Secretary of Agriculture, Henry C. Wallace; Brig. Gen. and Mrs. C. E. Sawyer and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Christian. The hours which Mrs. Harding has spent with her secretary, Miss Laura Harlan, working out the social program for the White House, have borne fruit and announcement will be made tomorrow of the dates which have been selected for official entertainments at the Executive Mansion.

CHIEF JUSTICE AND MRS. WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT will be the guests of honor at one of the most interesting festivities of the early season—the dinner which Mrs. William J. Boardman and Miss Mabel Boardman are giving for them tonight. The Supreme Court justices now in town, with their wives, will be among the guests, and it will be the first time Justice Taft and his colleagues have come together in a social way.

Justice and Mrs. Taft, who were guests of Mrs. Boardman and Miss Boardman for a few days on coming to Washington, are now in their own home, 2241 Wyoming avenue. Miss Boardman will leave Washington on Monday for Columbus, Ohio, to attend the Red Cross convention, and will be away through next week.

THE FORMER VICE PRESIDENT and Mrs. Marshall, who were expected in Washington last evening to visit Justice James Clark McReynolds, have been detained, but are expected to arrive. They have been in New York, where Mr. Marshall attended an important banquet and made an address.

Mr. Pezet Returns

The Ambassador of Peru, Federico Alfonso Pezet, returned to Washington yesterday after a short visit in New York. The Ambassador and Mme. Pezet will entertain informally at luncheon tomorrow in their apartment at Wardman Park Hotel.

The Attorney General, Harry M. Daugherty, returned to Washington yesterday from his home in Columbus, Ohio, where he took Mrs. Daugherty, who had been a patient at Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore.

The Minister of Sweden and Mme. Wallenberg and their daughter, Miss Ingegerd Wallenberg, will remain in New York over the week end. Mme. Wallenberg and her daughter ar-

MISS ELIZABETH KOONES,

Daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles K. Koonen, whose engagement to Eric Schon Henius, jr., of Copenhagen, Denmark, and New York, is announced today.

Arrived in New York yesterday aboard the Adriatic from Europe, where the minister went earlier in the week to meet them.

De Beches Entertain.

The Minister of Costa Rica and Senora de Beche entertained at luncheon yesterday at the Shoreham, having as their guests Col. and Mrs. George T. Weitzel.

Arthur Yencken, third secretary of the British embassy, will leave today for Hot Springs to be the guest of the Secretary of the Treasury and Miss Alice Mellon, at their summer place, Barton Lodge, over the week-end. Sir Alan Horne, who has been visiting Mr. Yencken at his home in Sixteenth street for the past week, will leave today for New York and will sail shortly for England.

Mrs. Philip Kauffmann and her small son returned yesterday from Blue Ridge Summit, Pa., where they spent the summer, and have joined Mr. Kauffmann at Somerset House. They have moved from the first floor to a larger apartment on the third floor.

Mrs. Kauffmann's mother, Mrs. Franklin K. Lane, is now in New York, where she expects to spend the winter, but she will come to Washington within the next week or two for the christening of her grandson, who will be called Franklin Lane Kauffmann for his grandfather, the late Secretary of the Navy.

Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Dennis E. Nolan will leave Washington tomorrow for Camp Knox, Ky., where they will spend two months before going to General Nolan's new station at San Antonio, Tex. General Nolan gave a luncheon today at the Army and Navy Club in honor of Maj. Gen. James G. Harbord.

Mrs. William Dugald MacDougall will be at home informally today and the two following Saturdays at the superintendent's house at the Navy Observatory, where Captain MacDougall is now the officer in charge. Miss Charlotte MacDougall has returned to Smith's College after a summer spent in the White mountains, and Miss Zilla MacDougall, who spent the summer in the Adirondacks, has joined her parents here.

Mrs. Adolph Caspar Miller is expected at her home in Washington residence next Thursday. She is at present at Pittsfield, Mass., where she went to attend the music festival arranged by Mrs. Frederick S. Coolidge.

Robert Woods Bliss, Third Assistant Secretary of State, and Mrs. Bliss, who always maintain quarters in New York, as well as a home in their home at Grosse Pointe, near Detroit, have returned to Washington. Senator and Mrs. Newberry will remain at Grosse Pointe for several weeks yet.

Mrs. William F. R. Hitt, who has been abroad for some months, will return on the Paris and will come to Washington to stay with her mother, Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins.

Count Jacques de Sieres, attaché of the French embassy, is in New York to meet Countess de Sieres and children, who are to arrive aboard the Paris. They will come direct to Washington, where M. de Sieres has taken a house at 1445 R street.

Mrs. W. Sinclair Bowen, who passed a considerable part of the summer at Dark Harbor, Me., has joined Dr. Bowen at their apartment at The Highlands. Mrs. Bowen was the guest of Col. and Mrs. Robert M. Thompson at their place at Southampton, en route from Maine. Colonel and Mrs. Thompson and Miss Hilda Sykes will pass the winter in California, but will resume their residence in Washington next spring.

Miss Koonen Engaged.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles K. Koonen announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Koonen, to Eric Schon Henius, jr., of Copenhagen, Denmark, and New York. Miss Koonen will sail on Wednesday for Copenhagen to visit her fiancé's parents. She will be absent two months, and later on Mr. Henius will join Mr. and Mrs. Henius, senior, in Copenhagen. No definite plans have been made for the wedding, which will take place in Washington. Mr. Henius is connected with the East Asiatic Company, of New York, and he and his bride expect to live in this country.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stewart, who have been traveling in Spain, have reached Paris, and will sail soon for New York. They have leased for two years the estate at Bayville, L. I., recently purchased by Mr. Winslow S. Pierce. Mr. Stewart has been connected with the American embassy in Peking.

Commander Walter B. Woodson, U. S. N., late on duty at Newport, has also been assigned to Washington. Commander and Mrs. Woodson have taken the residence, 1622 P street, where Mrs. Woodson and children will arrive shortly from their cottage in Jamestown.

Major and Mrs. Orlando Gray Palmer, of Detroit, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Corinne Palmer, to Capt. Raymond Orr, infantry, U. S. A.

Major Palmer was in the recruiting service in Detroit for two years, and now is in Washington on duty in the War Department, adjutant general's office. Captain Orr, who was with the Thirty-seventh Infantry at Fort Wayne, is now a student officer at Camp Benning, Ga.

The Ladies' Guild of the Church of the Advent has issued invitations for a reception in the parish hall next Wednesday evening from 8:30 to 10 o'clock to meet the Rev. Thom Williamson and Mrs. Williamson.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Sidwell, of the Friends' Select School, will be hosts tonight at an exhibition of motion pictures of the national parks of the United States and Canada, which will be shown in the grounds of the Friends' School Country Club. The entertainment was to have taken place last evening, but was postponed on account of inclement weather.

"Service Will Get You"

There is and has been for a long time an institution in Washington known as "Kandel's Hat Factory," located at 1826 14th St. N.W., now the Hat Hospital Co., under the direction of T. Z. Sota, who, for many years, has been engaged in the manufacturing of ladies' and gentlemen's hats.

A visit to the above institution will convince you that all the latest and leading models and styles will be found. Their New York expert keeps the local concern constantly in touch with all the latest creations. It is the only hospital in Washington that guarantees within twenty-four hours new life and form will be injected into any old hat. No matter if brought dead or alive, it will be, when leaving, clean, fresh and an artistic model suitable to travel with any correctly clad lady or gentleman.

People are generally satisfied to pay if they get in return what they pay for.

Try the Hat Hospital plan and you will say it is money well spent.

We make a specialty of felts, velours, beavers, velvets, plush and derbys.

Aside from making your old hat practically new, you can have a new one made to order. Once we satisfy you, you will call regularly just to get that perfection of comfort and style the Hat Hospital alone can give you. Yours respectfully,
